Job Description:

Cincinnati Tradition is seeking media interns to help shoot, edit, and produce our photo and video content for the TRADITION 2019 season. We're looking for talented photographers and videographers interested in producing incredible content on a tight schedule and limited budget. We want people who love the marching activity and are seeking to portray it in a relevant, exciting, and modern way.

You Will:

- Help shoot and produce TRADITION Access, our bi-weekly video series
- Help produce a special co-branded project with a major music supply manufacturer
- Work on development projects for TRADITION
- Shoot and edit photography for our social media accounts.
- Help manage the TRADITION social media accounts including Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, Snapchat, and others.

You Must:

- Be 18 or older by October 1st.
- Have a high school diploma or GED, College Student.
- Be a talented photographer or videographer
- Enjoy problem solving and think outside the box.
- Be proficient in common video editing suites like Avid, Adobe Premier, or Final Cut Pro.
- Make travel arrangements (you can carpool!) to all rehearsals.
- Love band.

Extra-special qualifications:

- Familiarity with the Adobe Creative Suite, especially Photoshop and Illustrator
- Advanced social media skills using Hootsuite, Facebook Ads, Twitter Ads, bit.ly, or Snapchat
- Advanced knowledge of any of these programs: Asana, Evernote, Slack, Google Apps
- Working knowledge of budding 360-degree and VR video technology

To Apply:

Email a cover letter, resume, and some examples of your photo/video work to us at CincinnatiTradition@gmail.com. You may also include a portfolio of your print or graphic design work. We'll review everything we have time to take a look at.
