SUMMER MUSIC GAMES in Cincinnati

Marching Music's Major League™ is coming to Dwire Field at Mason High School, Mason, OH on Tuesday, July 2, 2024 to compete in the 27th annual SUMMER MUSIC GAMES in Cincinnati, a major Drum Corps International competition. A diverse group of more than 1,200 youth, ages 14 to 22, from around the world will be coming to the Greater Cincinnati area to showcase their talent and compete as a part of their summer tour.

Each drum and bugle corps is comprised of up to 165 brass, color guard and percussionists that will give spectators an amazing display of athleticism, artistry and outstanding musical performances. A must see for the entire family!

The World Class line-up of corps includes:

- Bluecoats from Canton, OH
- Carolina Crown from Fort Mill, SC
- Cincinnati Tradition from Cincinnati, OH
- Eclipse, from Indianapolis, IN
- Boston Crusaders from Boston, MA
- Phantom Regiment from Rockford, IL
- Columbus Saints from Columbus, OH

Active participants in U.S. based drum and bugle corps hail from more than 15 countries. The SUMMER MUSIC GAMES tour includes more than 110 events throughout North America. Total attendance at tour events exceeds 350,000 guests.

The SUMMER MUSIC GAMES in Cincinnati has an equally diverse fan base with fans from 21 different states having already purchased tickets and will be attending.
